SVNIT SURAT:

The Sardar Vallabhbhai National Institute of Technology (SVNIT), Surat is one of the twenty National Institutes of Technology in India set up with the objective to provide high quality technical education to meet the needs of the Nation in the present competitive world.

The Institute campus is spread over 100 hectares of land on Surat-Dumas Road. The Institute was established in 1961 in Gujarat State as one of the Regional Engineering Colleges. It became National Institute of Technology (NIT) in 2002. At present, the Institute is offering number of under graduate, post graduate and Doctoral research programs of very high standard in various disciplines of technology. The Institute is ranked as one of the top most technical institutes of the Nation. It has an excellent placement record with a number of top ranking companies visiting the campus.

The institute is located at Surat, about 260 km North of Mumbai and is very well connected by rail and road links to Mumbai as well as Ahmadabad (250 km)/Vadodara (150 km). The institute is approximately 10 km away from Surat Railway Station and 10 km from the Surat Airport (STV). Surat is the industrial city with historical importance and is well known for Textile, Jari and Diamond industries. The leading industries like RIL, ONGC, Kribhco, L&T, ESSAR, NTPC, and GAIL are established in Surat Hazira area.

UNNAT BHARAT ABHIYAN

Vision of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan is to involve professional and other higher educational institutions of the country in the process of indigenous development of self-sufficient and sustainable village clusters in tune with the notion of 'Gram Swaraj' propounded by Mahatma Gandhi.
