Res. 4	Chairman of IAAC opened up the discussion on merging of Civil Engineering Department and Applied Mechanics Department. Associate Dean (P&D) insisted that autonomy of sections in the merged department be preserved. He also insisted that the funds generated from consultancy and testing of individual sections be allowed for development of laboratories pertaining to that section. Chairman agreed on the issue of autonomy of each section. However Dean (R&C) and Incharge Head of Civil Engineering Department pointed out that the revenue generated from consultancy and testing of different sections in a department is not segregated and it is not possible to use the revenue generated by one section separately for the development of laboratories of that section only. Dean (Academic) proposed that with renewed faculty strength of the department, the merged department of Civil Engineering should propose new UG program on "Infrastructure Technology".
